

FLOWERS AND MUSIC

The Features of the Celebration of Easter in the Churches.

THE APPROPRIATE SERVICES

In Nearly all Denominations are Attended by Unusually large Congregations—The Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches Crowded.

The celebration of Easter in the churches yesterday was more general than in recent past years, although the day was far from the typical Easter. The sky was sunless and gloomy, and light showers fell several times, yet it seemed as if all the people had come out to join in celebrating the anniversary of Resurrection morn.

At St. Matthews church the largest congregation ever seen there assembled. The aisles were both filled with chairs to accommodate those who could not get in the pews, and still many stood through the services. The floral decorations were the richest and most tasteful ever seen in Wheeling. They were furnished by G. W. Dix, of the Central flower store.

The music was impressive and spirited, the special choir being composed of Mrs. Flora Williams and Miss Grace Updegraff, of Mt. Pleasant, soprano; Miss Grace Fennell and Mrs. Peobles Tatum, altos; Messrs. Zulauf and McCoy, basses, and Dr. Aschmann and Mr. Mendel, tenors, and Miss Wilde, organist. The musical programme was splendid. Dr. Swope delivered a brief discourse appropriate to the day.

At the Sunday school services at St. Matthews every person present was given a candy Easter egg. Special exercises arranged for the day were rendered, and there was a very interesting session.

At St. Luke's church, on the Island, there was also a rare display of flowers, and a large congregation. The musical programme, a very fine one, was rendered by the following choir: sopranos, Mrs. J. P. Rogers, Mrs. Fred. Seymour, Misses Belle McCabe and Minnie McClymont; altos, Misses Lydie Irwin, Loretta McGranahan; tenors, F. J. Danner and David Tappan; basso, W. Irwin; organist, Miss Annie V. Savage.

MASS AND VESPERS

At the Cathedral—Procession of the Blessed Sacrament.

At the Cathedral yesterday morning pontifical high mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Bishop Kain. General's mass was sung by the following choir, under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Whittaker, the organist: Sopranos, Mrs. George S. Feeney, Mrs. Henry Keller, Misses Emma Yahn, Agnes Hess and Miss Devlin; contraltos, Misses Augusta Handlan, Jennie DeCamp and Agnes Laurie; tenors, Jacques Front, George Hoke, Walter Chapman and T. J. Miller; basses, Messrs. Adam Edwards, Will Yahn and Daniel Coffey.

In the afternoon vespers and benediction were sung. A pretty feature of the ceremonies was the procession of the Blessed Sacrament, in which the young ladies' sodality and all the parochial school children took part. The procession marched around through the aisles of the church, the bishop bearing aloft the monstrance, containing the Holy Eucharist. Bishop Kain delivered a sermon on the Easter ceremonies, a theme he treated in an eloquent manner.

OTHER CATHOLIC CHURCHES.

Imposing Celebration by the two South Side Congregations.

At St. Alphonsus church there was high mass at 10 a. m., and at 3 p. m. Adolph Kain's "Vespers de Confessore" was sung by the full choir, with baritone solos by Frank J. Diegmiller. Following are the members of the choir: Sopranos, Misses Bertha Fox, Rosa Bischof, Christina Zarnits, Kate Ebbert, Mary Ebbert, Sophia Steinmetz, Anna Heimiller, Mary Heil, Mary Belinger, Gertrude Bonenberger, Mary Dietrich; altos, Misses Crescentia Feiler, Mathilda Fehler, Theresa Schafer, Frances Klem; tenors, Frank A. Woerber, jr., Henry Paul, Julius Hohse, Frank J. Miller, George Bott, John Weiskircher, Joseph Baker; basses, Frank J. Diegmiller, William Paul, Joseph Vogt, Anton Nolte, Wm. J. Nolte, Chas. Woerber, Peter Pockl; organist, Sebastian Meier.

At the church of the Immaculate Conception at 10 a. m. "Farmer's Mass in B-flat" was sung under the direction of Mr. R. V. Arkle, with the following special choir: Sopranos, Misses Mollie Manion, Mamie Finley, Mamie Carey, Louise Hasenauer, Mamie Brady and Alice Carey; alto, Mrs. J. Humes; tenor, R. V. Arkle; basses, Henry Renter, Ed Rosey, Andrew Habig, Will Miller, Al Carney and Charles Ray; organist, Miss Ella Arkle.

The Success of a former Wheeling Boy.

Rev. S. K. Arbutnot, the new pastor of the M. E. church, arrived in Weston last week and conducted regular services Sunday morning and evening. He is a very pleasing gentleman and has made a splendid impression upon our people, among whom he has been cordially received. His sermons were excellent and much appreciated by the congregations. His pastorate in Weston will no doubt be successful, for he is an earnest and faithful minister of the Lord. The Democrat is glad to welcome him to his new field of labor and hopes that he may like our people as well as he is liked by them.—Weston Democrat.

Mr. Arbutnot will graduate with his class from Boston university school of theology the 1st of June next. He has been excused by the faculty for attendance at school until commencement in order that he might assume the pastorate of the large and important M. E. church at Weston. Formerly Mr. Arbutnot was connected with the jobbing department of the INTELLIGENCER office, but for the last eight years has devoted himself to preparing himself for the office and work of a minister in the M. E. church.

A Good Showing.

Following is the statistical report of the First Presbyterian church, for the year ending March 31, 1892: Ruling elders 6; deacons 5; members added on examination 53; on certificate from other churches 24; total communicants 600; adults baptized 8; infants baptized 22; membership of Sabbath schools, including teachers, officers and scholars, 569; benevolent contributions—home missions $1,497.00; foreign missions $1,847.00; education $147.00; Sabbath school work $103.00; church erection $140.00; ministerial relief fund $104.00; board for freedmen $50.00; synodical sustentation $76.00; aid for colleges and academies $42.00; American Bible Society $31.00; general assembly fund $51.80; congregational $5,773.23; miscellaneous $1,021.55; total for the year $14,945.65.

AT OTHER CHURCHES.

Special Services and Special Music by Nearly all Denominations.

At the English Lutheran church special services of a beautiful character were rendered. The church was prettily decorated. In the evening "A Resurrection Message" was the theme, and the Lord's Supper was administered after the sermon.

At the Second Presbyterian church there was a special Easter service in the forenoon, and last evening Miss Updegraff sang a solo which was much enjoyed.

At St. Paul's German church, in the Eighth ward, eleven girls and eight boys were confirmed yesterday.

At the Thomson M. E. church Rev. Dr. Fullerton preached on the topic, "A Woman the First Preacher of the Resurrection." Floral decorations and special music were features of the day.

At the Wesley M. E. church the children took a prominent part in the very enjoyable services. The church was decorated, and the exercises throughout the day had special reference to Easter.

At the Disciples church last evening Evangelist Van Pelt preached his farewell sermon to the congregation and at its conclusion eight converts were immersed. The attendance was unusually large.

SPEECHES NOT SPOKEN.

The Congressional Record Now Bursting With Them Daily—Democrats Begun It and the Republicans Making Them Tired of It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—The Congressional Record of yesterday morning was a sight to delight the eyes of those members who are violently opposed to any curtailment of the privilege of "extending" remarks in that most extraordinary daily newspaper of the world. The Republicans were true to their threat, made on Thursday, that if the chapters of Henry George's free trade work, "Protection and Free Trade," were not expunged, they would print in the Record whole books in favor of protection.

The Record accordingly came out containing the entire contents of a pamphlet issued by the Protective Tariff League, entitled "From Plymouth Rock to McKinley," making thirteen closely printed pages. Another protection effusion was made up of extracts from the New York Tribune in answer to a letter of Roswell G. Tlorr, and on the free trade side there appeared the three concluding chapters of Henry George's book, which had not before been printed. Each of these innovations was attached to a speech supposed to have been delivered about two weeks ago, and which the speakers, Milliken, of Maine, Dolliver, of Iowa, and Simpson, of Kansas, had the privilege of extending.

Of course, an abuse of the Record in this manner can have but one result. It was begun by young members, who claimed they could not get recognition for the speeches they desired to make. It will be continued by old members, who can get all the time they want, for the purpose of bringing about a reform of the expensive abuse of leading up the Record with speeches that were never made, epic poems which could secure publication in no other way, and whole volumes containing opinions in sympathy with those of members who have not the brains to originate those opinions or the gift to put them into words.

"Protection and Free Trade" is now completed by serial publication, and with "From Plymouth Rock to McKinley" complete in one issue, the opposing works will be sent, at the cost of the government, in franked wrappers, to hundreds of thousands of voters during the campaign.

National committees can have them set up and stereotyped and so printed at a trifling cost, wrapped by government employees, and franked to swindle the mails, and whole tons of the matter distributed at a trifling portion of what the cost would be if the wrapping and postage were not paid for by Uncle Sam.

Just what grotesque tricks will yet be played no one can tell. Each morning the Record will be scanned eagerly for scientific, philosophical, economical, social, poetic and dramatic publications, and it would not be at all surprising if young novelists, daughters of members, possibly devoted to the very latest erratic styles, were to succeed in having their works, rejected elsewhere, immortalized in the Record. Already one very radical member, who is opposed to any extension of the remarks in the form of matter spoken, threatens to publish complete in one issue Tolstoy's "Kreutzer Sonata."

It hardly seems possible that the impetus given to this abuse of the Record can result in anything else than a prohibition of all matter not spoken on the floor. The pity is that all matter except the official record of finished business cannot be excluded.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the government lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store.

Admitted the Facts.

Newspaper editors have to be very careful in opening their columns for statements. But aware that the Dr. Miles Medical Co. are responsible, we make room for the following testimonial from R. McDougall, Auburn, Ind., who for two years noticed a stoppage or skipping of the pulse, his left side got so tender he could not lie on it, his heart fluttered, he was alarmed, went to different doctors, found no relief, but one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure cured him. The elegant book, "New and Startling Facts," free at Logan Drug Co.'s. It tells all about Heart and Nervous Diseases and many wonderful cures.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "La Grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, greatly aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c, at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store.

BASTIN'S Cough and Consumption Cure cures coughs and colds of long standing. 25c at all druggists.

having 30 on her limbs, and being unable to walk. I had heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and bought a bottle, half of which cured her. Two years after, another child was afflicted as badly. I used the other half bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla with like results. About four years after, the child first afflicted was again tormented like Job, and I bought a bottle (on Sunday at that) and again a cure. I gave some of the medicine to a poor woman and two children; they were helped as were mine. Through a testimonial sent to C. L. Hood & Co., inquiries came from all the country, asking if it was a "bona fide" testimonial, and of course I wrote all that it was, and have the knowledge of
